The fees are reduced to the lowest possible amount and there are no incidental charges. At Princess Anne Academy tuition is free, and in all the schools the price of board is fixed at the bare cost. Our graduates are finding pleasant and remunerative positions in teaching and in other vocations. DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS' REPORTS.

CAMBRIDGE DISTRICT.

BISHOP AND BRETHREN:—

With grateful hearts and humble recognition of the blessings which the Great Head of the Church has bestowed upon us, with a consciousness of our numerous shortcomings, with a sense of our inability to measure up to our opportunities and responsibilities, we approach this moment with a mingling of joy and sadness. While many of our brethren have been on the sick list our ranks have not been broken and with one exception, death has not entered any of our homes. We have received of the bountiful hand of Him who clothes the lilly and feeds the raven, yet all our path was not strown with flowers.

This has been a year of unrest and a year of sacrifice among our workmen. We have not succeeded as we should have liked and in some respects we have failed. Our roll of conversions, probationers and accessions is not as long as it was last year. Our benevolences are not what we have labored to make them. The majority of our pastors have struggled to lay our educational interests upon the hearts of the people, but we have not attained our hope. We have failed to raise our apportionment for the endowment of Morgan College to make possible the munificent gift of Mr. Carnegie. Under these glaring failures our brethren have been restless. Some have made every sacrifice which seemed necessary. Some have made heroic efforts and succeeded, others have failed in an heroic effort. Among the contributing causes to our failures may be mentioned the low wages of the average wage earner as inadequate to meet the existing high cost of living. In many cases our people have not had the money to give. Furthermore, there is a spirit of real opposition in some places from persons of influence to any form of benevolences. The cause of Missions and the cause of Education is looked upon by some as unnecessary burdens. Our effort to raise the endowment for Morgan College is sometimes denounced as an outrage upon the people, and especially where there is a large Church debt. This opposition is not always from persons of no learning, but from the educated as well. It is not an easy matter to convince the people with whom we have to do without an object lesson, when dollars and cents are concerned. It may be further stated that at the last session of the Conference, three of the strongest charges on the District, namely, Federalsburg, Mardela Springs and Preston, were assigned to other Districts. It is true that Snow Hill, Snow Hill Circuit, Box Iron, Stockton and Chincoteague were assigned to this District, but these five charges are not as strong as the three that were taken away in their benevolent contributions, hence the District in the aggregate sustains a slight financial loss. Then, too, in many places spirituality has been at low-tide all the year. Notwithstanding all these contributing causes, the Lord has been gracious to us and has given us showers of blessings. The conversions in the various Charges number from two to sixty-two and range in age from eight to sixty years. Reports show 589 conversions, 462 probationers, 283 accessions, an increase in the number of Epworth Leagues and an increase in the number of classes of children formed for religious instruction.

Charges.

AIREYS has had a successful year, although it suffered the usual calamity of the so-called camp-meeting season. During the latter part of winter a spiritual wave swept over the Charge, resulting in 23 conversions; probationers, 3; accessions, —. Raised for building and improvements, $120; benevolences are nearly up to last year and is one of the first Charges in the District to raise its entire apportionment, $75, of the Carnegie Fund. The return of the pastor, G. W. Townsend, is desired.

BECKWITH, supplied by J. H. Grinnage, has not been quite as successful as last year along financial lines, yet there seems to be signs of moral improvement. Plans have been completed for remodeling the parsonage, most of the lumber having been donated and is on the ground ready for the workmen. Raised on old debts, $92.20; benevolences partially raised; raised for the Carnegie Fund, $10. Conversions, 16; probationers, 4; accessions, 4.

BOX IRON was transferred from the Salisbury District at the last session of the Conference and has not learned our way of thinking about our Connectional Interests. The pastor reports that the people will not pay benevolences and that this is the poorest year's work that he has done since he joined the Conference. He reports $253 raised on old debts and $50 for the benevolences. Conversions, 3; probationers, 10; accessions, 2. The pastor, E. H. Nichols, suffered an attack of La Grippe during the month of February, which seriously hindered him in his work.

BRIDGEVILLE has had another year of splendid success. Every department of the Church is organized and working. Great stress is laid on the moral and spiritual development of the people. Conversions, 62; probationers, 30; accessions, 11; one class of children formed for religious instruction. Paid on old debts, $150; benevolences, partially raised. The apportionment for the Carnegie Fund is $40 and $30 have been raised. The return of the pastor, J. W. Fenderson, is requested.

BRIDGEVILLE CIRCUIT, at the last session of the Conference, was made up of detachments from Bridgeville and Seaford Circuits and results show the wisdom of such division. There was some little friction at first, but the manliness of the pastor has shown him to be master of the situation. There are better Sunday Schools, better Epworth Leagues, better Church organization in every way than could have been accomplished under the old arrangements. Paid on the new Church at Bethel, $98; on improvements, $68. Benevolent apportionments in full. Bridgeville Circuit was the first Charge in the entire District to raise its full apportionment of the Carnegie Fund, $30. Conversions, 15; probationers, 18; accessions, 4; two classes of children formed for religious instruction. Malachi Raisin, pastor.

CAMBRIDGE has past through a year of severe trial. The high cost of living, low wages, the scarcity of work during the summer months and the reaction as the result of nine years of toll in building the Church, all have conjoined to make this a year of struggle for both pastor and people. The pastor, like an enthusiastic General, has struggled to rally his forces for great financial battles, but his soldiers were unable to rally to the standard as in former days. The fervidity of his zeal is no less after twelve years of labor than when he began, nor is his devotion to his beloved Zion diminished, only conditions have changed. Raised on old debts, $700; benevolences partially raised; Carnegie Fund, $—. Conversions, 3; probationers, 9; one class of children formed for religious instruction. A. L. Martin, pastor.

CAMBRIDGE CIRCUIT has not been as successful this year as last, although the pastor and his wife have labored assiduously with little result. Paid on old debts, $22.82. Benevolences taken. Conversions, 7; probationers, 13; accessions, 4; 2 classes of children formed for religious instruction; one Epworth League doing good work. The return of the pastor, C. E. Davis, requested.

CHINCOTEAGUE ISLAND is too feeble in membership to support a pastor. The industrial conditions which prevailed in former years do not now exist. The total membership does not number 15. The Fourth Quarterly Conference unanimously requested that this feeble Charge be attached to some other Charge. Conversions, 3; probationers, 11. Benevolences, $11; paid on old debt, $19. Supplied by S. T. Hammond.

CHURCH CREEK has surpassed all former records in her finance and organization. This once feeble Charge is now beginning to show signs of strength. Raised for old debts, $52.50; on improvements, $17.16; benevolences full and far in advance of last year; the full apportionment for the Carnegie Fund, $30, has been raised and Church Creek is one of the banner Charges in this particular. Conversions, 14; probationers, 10; accessions, 4. The return of the pastor, W. J. Helm, requested.

CRAPO—No report was received from the pastor.

EAST NEW MARKET has received a new inspiration and has shown much energy under the leadership of the present pastor and his inestimable wife. East New Market is situated in a Camp-meeting center and for years has held the so-called Camp. The pastor holds an uncompromising position against the Camp. No camp was held there this year, and what is better, the Sunday School was kept open with a splendid attendance right in the heart of the Camp season, without excepting a single Sunday. The Junior League is the strongest on the District and meets regularly. The Juniors have turned over to the trustees for improvements, $31; the Senior, $16; benevolences full. Conversions, 50; probationers, 49; accessions, 2; 1 class of children formed for religious instruction. It does seem that God especially blesses the Charges which refuse to desecrate the Sabbath by participating in the most degrading institution among us under the guise of religion. J. R. Brinkley, pastor.

FRANKFORD has had a quiet year. The parsonage has been sold and a new site bought near the Church. Amounts of finances were not included in the pastor's report. Conversions, 9; probationers, 8; accessions, 12; 1 class of children formed for religious instruction. Benevolences about equal to last. D. R. Dunn, pastor.

HARRINGTON is a hard Charge to serve. Reports show that it is as far behind its record of last year as it was in advance last year of the record over the previous year. The pastor has tried to make things go, but only the faithful few have stood loyally. Paid on improvements, $103.58; on old debts, $26; benevolences taken; Carnegie Fund, $8. Accessions, 6. G. R. Hollis, pastor.

HURLOCK reports $15 paid on improvements; on old debts, $98; on parsonage, $36; benevolences taken; Carnegie Fund, $30. Conversions, 19; probationers, 19; accessions, 5; 3 classes of children formed for religious instruction. J. W. Bowling, pastor.

LAUREL reports another successful year's work. Paid on old debts, $142; on improvements, $22; benevolences, nearly full; the total apportionment for the Carnegie Fund has been raised, $105. Conversions, 28; probationers, 19; accessions, 28; 1 class of children formed for religious instruction. The return of the pastor, R. H. Wallace, requested.

LEWES still forges to the fore. Conversions, 2; probationers, 7. Paid on building and improvements, $80; on old debts, $51. Benevolences full and in advance of last year. Raised for the Carnegie Fund, $29. The return of the pastor, J. W. Cook, is earnestly requested, and he is saying forever here let me abide.

LINCOLN is rated as one of our best Charges. Raised for building and improvements, $145; on old debts, $276; benevolences nearly full. Conversions, 8; probationers, 14; accessions, 16; 2 classes of children formed for religious instruction. The return of the pastor, F. C. Wright, requested.

LINKWOOD has made great progress during the past year. A much needed new church has been built at Thompsettown at a cost of $1500 and $770 have been paid on the same; on improvements, $10; on old debts, $30; the benevolences are in advance of last year and $50 besides on the Carnegie Fund. Conversions, 25; probationers, 25; accessions, 5; 1 class of children formed for religious instruction. The return of the pastor, G. T. Fields, is prayed for.

Madison seems to have the best report in her history. All the benevolent collections are increased over last year. Paid on old debts, $30; benevolences, $120, besides the Carnegie Fund, which is, $— . Conversions, 21; probationers, 14; accessions, 7; 1 class of children formed for religious instruction. The return of the pastor, W. C. West, is earnestly requested.

MILFORD. The pastor has been unwell most of the year and from present indications is on the border of nervous prostration. We have advised him to take Supernumerary relation for one year in order that he may recover, but this he is unwilling to do. Owing to the moral and spiritual condition of the Church and the pastor's nervous condition, very little has been accomplished in Church work, except what sister Hubbard has been able to direct. Paid on old debts, $71; raised for benevolences, $25; raised for the Carnegie Fund, $15. Probationers, 9; accessions, 8. J. H. B. Hubbard, pastor.

MIDDLEFORD is a mission station with 27 members. It is an experiment which has proven very satisfactory to themselves. They are an heroic little band. They have paid the pastor, $175, and sent $15 benevolences to the Conference and contributed $5 for the Carnegie Fund. The work has been supplied by brother G. W. Fisher, and they ask that their pastor be returned to them. Both parties are well pleased.

NASSAU AND REHOBOTH have done well. Pastor and people have labored together amicably. Paid on new Church at Belltown, $300; on entire old indebtedness, $410; benevolences, good under the circumstances; raised for the Carnegie Fund, $10. Conversions, 20; probationers, 8; accessions, 25; 2 classes of children formed for religious instruction. D. W. Martin, pastor. His return is requested.

NORTH BERLIN is at her usual place, in the front ranks with an increase of total benevolences over last year. Conversions, 16; probationers, 16; accessions, 15; 1 class of children formed for religious instruction. Raised for improvements, $45; on organ, $52; on the Carnegie Fund, $45, a total of $111 from this Charge for this cause. The people of Berlin love their pastor and earnestly request his return. J. F. Molock, pastor.

SEAFORD has done remarkably well this year. The people have seen the wisdom of the division. They have felt the weight and influence of the pastor in the Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues. They have just awakened to what they were missing when they were all together. A gracious revival swept over the Charge resulting in 50 conversions; 38 probationers; 7 accessions. Raised for improvements, $69.58; paid on old debts, $55. The benevolences are nearly equal to what they were before Bethel Church was detached. Raised for the Carnegie Fund, $40. The people greatly love the pastor and desire his return. C. W. Downs, pastor.

SNOW HILL has been unfortunate in two respects. During the first month of the Conference year, the Snow Hill Woodworking Company's plant was burned to ashes. This plant gave employment to almost all the male members of Ebenezer Church. Finding themselves without employment these men were compelled to leave home in search of work in order that they might support their families. The second misfortune which has befallen the Church was the illness of the pastor. The Church was, practically, without pastoral supervision for more than six weeks. During this time the pastor lingered between life and death. Brother D. W. Quillen supplied the work during the remainder of the pastor's illness and rendered valuable service. Through the mercies of God and medical skill Bro. Deakins was restored to health and took charge of his work the latter part of August, and, notwithstanding these unfortunate happenings, a remarkable year's work has been accomplished. Paid on old debts, $145; benevolences, $124; Carnegie Fund, $—. Conversions, 55; probationers, 53; 1 class of children formed for religious instruction. L. W. Deakins, pastor.

SNOW HILL CIRCUIT is an heroic little band who have caught the spirit of their leader. They are willing and trying to move upward. They have the desire to be numbered with the best. Paid on old debts, $9; benevolences in advance of last year, $—. Conversions, 12; probationers, 8; accessions, 4; 3 classes of children formed for religious instruction. Every dollar of the apportionment for the Carnegie Fund was paid last year. Supplied by C. H. Spencer, whose return is urgently requested.

SOUTH BERLIN still moves upward. The pastor is quiet, righteous, unassuming, but a powerful workman for God, whose power is seen in whatsoever field he labors. Opposition seems to draw out the best that is in him. He seldom complains. Paid on New Bethel Church, $323.52; on improvements, $78; total amount paid on old debts, $415. Benevolent apportionments full and in advance of last year. Carnegie Fund, $—. Conversions, 21; probationers, 9; accessions, 14. G. W. Downs, pastor.

STOCKTON, C. L. Anderson, pastor, reports paid on improvements, $240; on new Church, $80; on parsonage, $47; total amount paid on old debts, $127; benevolences in advance of last year; Carnegie Fund, $10. Conversions, 42; probationers, 17; accessions, 39; 3 classes of children formed for religious instruction.

TRINITY has regained her former position in the District under the leadership of the present pastor. But the congregation at Friendship has sustained a serious loss. One night in February, of this year, their Church building was burned to ashes. There was not a cent of insurance. In almost every Quarterly Conference for the past five years, I have insisted upon the trustees to insure the Church, pointing out the probability of fire. They were heedless and negligent. This ought to be a warning to all uninured Churches. Paid on old debts, $30; benevolences in advance of last year. Conversions, 15; probationers, 4; accessions, 7. I. D. Paine, pastor.

VIENNA is to be congratulated for her energy and courage. The debt of about $500 is paid off with the exception of a few dollars. They declare that they will correct the mistake which was made in the onset by employing a competent architect and builder, tear down what is necessary and start afresh. Paid on old debts, $—; on improvements, $—; benevolences nearly equal to that of last year; the full apportionment of the Carnegie Fund paid, $50. Conversions, —; probationers, —; accessions, —. The return of the pastor, L. H. Martin, is requested.

WHALEYVILLE, supplied by D. G. Waters, has had a very successful year. Every department of the Church has felt the zeal and enthusiasm of this young pastor. Two Epworth Leagues and three Ladies' Aid Societies have been organized and they have done a noble work. Paid on building and improvements, $50.75; on old debts, $34; benevolences full and far in advance of last year; Carnegie Fund, $12. Conversions, 35; probationers, 39; 1 class of children formed for religious instruction.

The Ladies' Aid Societies.

The Ladies' Aid Societies of the District have increased in number and efficiency. No workers among us deserve to be mentioned more than they. Their reports are as follows: Aireys, — members, $55; Beckwith, 18 members, $20; Box Iron, 16 members, $21; Bridgeville, 50 members, $150; Bridgeville Circuit, 37 members, $76; Cambridge Circuit, 30 members, $95.93; Church Creek, 20 members, $16.76; Crapo, — members, $—; East New Market, 60 members, $227; Frankford, — members, $132.58; Harrington, 7 members, $27; Lewes, — members, $80; Lincoln, 63 members, $97; Linkwood, 30 members, $76; Madison, — members, $50; Milford, 20 members, $22; Nassau and Rehoboth, 54 members, $35; North Berlin, 20 members, $70; Seaford, 30 members, $104.40; South Berlin, 106 members, $300.00; Stockton, — members, $14; Vienna, — members, $56.65; Whaleyville, 84 members, $86.90. These societies raised for the Churches nearly $1800.00. They deserve the highest commendation.

Summary.

Reports from pastors show that we have raised for Foreign Missions, $447; for Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, $403; for Freedmen's Aid, $253; for Conference Claimants, $321; for Carnegie Fund, $710. Some of these collections have decreased from last year and some have increased. The aggregate of collections, however, is $2,929, an increase of $317 over last year.

Faithfully submitted,

J. R. BROWN.

CENTREVILLE DISTRICT.

BISHOP AND BRETHREN:—

In response to the call we return from the various posts to which we were sent that we may answer roll call and present reports of the work we have accomplished in our efforts to advance the cause of our Lord.

I am thankful to say in submitting this, my first Annual Report for the Centreville District, that our Ministerial Rank has not been broken by death, and that most of the brethren have escaped without encountering illness of a serious nature. Bro. J. C. Bantom has suffered two severe attacks, the last confining him to his home in almost a helpless condition since the 22nd of Dec., 1909, and from which he is just recovering and has ventured to attend this session of Conference.

Brothers A. Chase, J. T. Fletcher and others of adjoining charges by their labors rendered faithful services to the work during brother Bantom's illness, thus preventing the serious effect that would otherwise have occurred.

Mrs. I. D. Pitts was critically ill during the months of November and December, but we are thankful to say has fully recovered.

The shadow caused by death has fallen in several homes; on May 14th Mrs. J. T. Fletcher was bereaved of her beloved mother, Mrs. Martha E. Wilson; the deceased was a consistent christian and a faithful member of Metropolitan M. E. Church in Baltimore, Md.

Mrs. S. J. Friend, a sister of the Rev. J. R. Holland, died Oct. 29th, 1909. She was victorious in life and peaceful in death.

Blanche A. F. Hall (age 13), the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. C. J. Hall, was called hence, leaving gloom in their home, Oct. the 26th, 1909. She was in her life an angel of sunshine and cheer to their home. Of each we may say, 'twas the Master's call and they've obeyed, we loved them but dare not chide.

A View of the Work.

Whatever of success the year has produced in this field of labor, a great share of the credit is due to my predecessor, who worked well the field, enriching it with his wisdom and goodness; making so plain the work and the plan of the District that a follower could not fail to grasp the work at once, I do not wish to advance his age by the expression: but no father could be more painstaking with a beloved son than has the brother been with his humble successor in order to make the work committed to my care succeed.

The faithful pastors and their companions have done their best by examples of unstinted labor to make me hopeful in my new field of labor, in this also the lay members and friends of the church have joined heartily, producing unity and confidence throughout the year.

The District has many conditions existing in it that makes success in many of the charges far from easy to obtain for many families seem obliged to follow the berry fields during that season for a livelihood, causing many churches to be almost deserted at a time of the year when the most effective work in the charge should be done, the work because of this fact is left to the most uncertain season when they must depend on the oyster industry, which is often paralyzed by bad weather or very low prices, often running as low as fifteen cents a bushel, so the reports, out of these adverse conditions, can be justly considered marvelous.

Notwithstanding the conditions above mentioned it can be easily seen that no part of the work, or call from the church, can be neglected without inviting disaster, and prolonging troubles that only true righteousness can cure; on every hand this truth can be observed.

In every movement of the age and especially with the people I serve, can be seen the need of the "faith that will not shrink though pressed by every foe", for we have many storm clouds; one breaks only to be followed by another, darker and more terrifying, for we live where untiring efforts are constantly made to discount manhood and crush the hopes of all alike whose lot it is to be wrapped in dark skin.

We look with longing hearts upon such efforts as are fostered in the Carnegie offer to perpetuate that sort of education best adapted to fit men everywhere for living to the glory of God and fellowman; therefore we urge no let up until the last dollar is raised, this cry is joined by many of our pastors, and without doubt will be the word of all.

We have not enjoyed such a sweeping revival wave as we hoped would be our pleasure to report, though in several places the copious showers of this year will be long remembered, the charges report 584 conversions, and 545 accessions.

Our Sunday Schools are in a healthy condition, though a more perfect mark in this department is prevented by the summer meetings which always scatter the forces for many weeks when traveling is possible, then the winter follows which always reduces the attendance in rural schools, withal eighteen Cradle Rolls with marked improvement in many classes for religious instruction are signs of a growing interest in this worthy department.

The Epworth League Chapters are alive on the District and in most churches they give evidence of that life by the spirit of their devotional meetings; to these meetings much of the revival spirit in our churches is indebted.

The Methodist Brotherhood has not thrived as we hoped in our midst this year, though every effort has been put forth to show its value; St. Michaels has the honor of the only chapter reported on this District.

The spirit of church building has entered several communities with fine success, the result is that one church has been renovated to the extent of being now as good as new, the church at Star on the Cordova Circuit has this honor; while the Mission on the same charge has a fine well built new church. The remaining honors belong to Centreville, Kent Island, and McDaniel, each having commodious churches in course of erection, each being nearly complete.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society.

This work I fear is not receiving the encouragement and general support that it deserves on the District, nevertheless the work is growing, for it is fortunately, on the hearts of a number of fearless and sincere advocates whose labor should be rewarded with an active auxiliary in every charge, such must certainly occur if we would avoid retarding the progress of our unfortunate people.

Charges.

CARMICHAEL—This charge is happy in the onward and upward movement of the work. The revival fire has touched the hearts of many, they report conversions, 40; accessions, 33. Raised on old debts and for improvements, $426. Benevolences, $86.

CENTREVILLE STATION has, under the leadership of Bro. Shelton, shown themselves very much alive, they have obeyed the command "Go forward"; the result is that the long looked for new church is erected at a cost of $3,500, on which $975 have been raised and paid. The parsonage also has shared this blessing, for a new porch covering front and side makes a beautiful home as well as a convenient one. The dedication of the new edifice is looked forward to in the month of May. The pastor well deserves the name of one who brings things to pass, for one after another buildings arise to bless his memory. Amid the work of building no part of the church work has been neglected. For benevolence he brings $202. To the Carnegie Fund, $26. Conversions, 17. Accessions, 14. Raised for all purposes $2106.

CENTREVILLE CIRCUIT is manned by a hard working, painstaking pastor. The effect of his good work will be lasting, this the people are beginning to learn, and the work has advanced despite their many difficulties. Conversions, 3; accessions, 3. For improvements, $82. Benevolences taken in part, amount $37.

CHESTERTOWN verifies the fact that it is possible to grow in years and strength. Their report for the benevolent cause this year will exceed that of any previous report, for the word is "everything" full and that means much more this year than usual, but they add "And running over." The apportionment for the Carnegie Fund is full, also that for the African Diamond Jubilee. Total raised for benevolent causes, $300. The church is thoroughly organized and is spiritually alive. Conversions, 20; accessions, 20. A new bell weighing more than 1000 pounds now tolls the hour service. Raised and paid for improvements, $326. The pastors return for the seventh year is earnestly requested.

CHURCH HILL still enjoys the leadership of their tried and true pastor. Rev. F. J. Lee, they say, is the right man in the right place. This we have reason to believe, for the work is advanced and harmony prevails. Benevolence looked after. Conversions, 15; accessions, 12. Reported $67. The pastors return is desired.

CORDOVA not only continues her good record for spiritual work by reporting 35 conversions and 34 accessions; but has erected one new church costing about $600, and remodeled another costing $500, making practically a new church of that. Raised and paid on the work, $300, with very easy terms to raise the balance. Benevolence, $145; applied to the Carnegie Fund, $60.

DENTON—This charge has not slacked its pace, but has continued to rally to every call made for the advancement of the church, both local and general. The church in Denton is now free from debt and about $50 will free the church at Thomastown from the remnant of a long standing debt, this would be a great blessing to the work there and secure our work. The people of this charge prove themselves good and loyal, in that they are willing to sacrifice to every worthy cause. Raised for debt and improvements, $442. Benevolence, $147. For the African Diamond Jubilee, $15. This means every cause full and overflowing—a very good habit adopted by the pastor and his people. Conversions, 32; accessions, 29. His return is desired.

EASTON—This work has just enjoyed a great revival quickening in life of the church, resulting in 37 conversions and 28 accessions. This is the result of seed sowing and nurture. Every interest of the church is looked after with care, the organization is splendid and tends towards making systematic giving help in advancing the spirituality of the charge. Raised for benevolence, $186. To the Carnegie Fund, $20. The work of the W. H. M. S. is alive and every effort is put forth to make it effective; in all that section this work deserves encouragement.

EASTON CIRCUIT has a bright future, conditions are favorable and under the management of the worthy pastor, the point of self-support is nearer. The benevolences are advanced above previous reports, the spirit of benevolence grows. This work has nurtured and given to the pastor a bride. S. J. Hammond is pastor.

FAIRLEE is a prosperous work; this is easily seen in the lovely places of worship erected and remodeled during the present pastorate. The reports show that the work is prospering on all lines. Conversions, 7; accessions, 10. To the Carnegie Fund, $80; total benevolences raised, $215.

FEDERALSBURG—This work became a part of the Centreville District last Conference, was formerly of the Cambridge District. The possibility of this charge becoming one of our strongest if properly managed is indeed great. Two churches compose the charge, the church in town has a mass of young people looking to it for spiritual food and training. The need of a new church in this rapid growing town is great, and looking to this end the Ladies' Aid Society has purchased and given to the organization a suitable lot, and we hope same may soon be graced with the much needed structure. Raised for improvement, $110. Benevolence, $143. Conversions, 4; accessions, 12. The church is well organized and hopeful.

GREENSBORO—This work was subjected to a change of pastors after many years of loving service, but are showing wisdom and loyalty in their efforts to continue the work of the Lord with whom He has sent. They report $60 on improvements. Benevolence, $172. Carnegie Fund, $14. Conversions, 12; accessions, 14. The charge is well organized, the pastor and people with a full report, are hopeful for future good.

LONGWOOD reports another year of forward movement. The church at Copperville is improved with tower and bell, and with an improved interior at a cost of $109. Expended for improvements at Longwood also $13. Total expended, $160. Benevolence, $81. Carnegie Fund, $1. Conversions, 6. The pastor is closing the sixth year on this work.

McDANIEL under the leadership of J. M. Dickerson, who was appointed to supply this work, has lost no ground, but in leaps and bounds has gone forth towards the goal. A new church at McDaniel is in course of erection, with plan for payment made to suit the people. Raised for said purpose, $300. Benevolence, $99. Carnegie Fund, $10. Conversions, 12; accessions, 8. All departments of the church are cared for.

MELITOTA—There is more hope for development in this work than ever, because of the destruction of an evil near the work long defiant and destructive to many of our people. The goods sold, they called pear cider, but it made folks drunk. Many futile attempts preceded this last to uproot it. Now that the merchant has fled, christians should rejoice. Raised for improvements, $103; benevolences, $35. Conversions, 10; accessions, 11.

OXFORD has a hard working loyal people, who, despite the season's slackness, have done well. The church erected last year has been dedicated and given a finishing touch. Raised for improvements, $28. Paid on indebtedness, $229. Benevolences, $58. Carnegie Fund, $5. Conversions, 12; accessions, 13. The pastor has worked hard and deserves commendation.

PRESTON is an addition to this work. Was formerly of the Cambridge District. This charge is strong and able, because of its large membership of prosperous tillers of the soil. Revival fires have burned upon their altars. They report, as a result, 45 conversions, 32 accessions. Amount raised for improvements, $40. Benevolences, $114. Carnegie Fund, $15. Life is evident in every part of this work.

POMONA—This is a great charge, both in numbers that compose it, and the scope that it covers. The care that should be given the mass of young people in order to properly develop this work is more than one pastor can give, it is needful therefore that preparation for division should begin, for many precious souls are at stake. The pastor is not afraid of work and has wrought well, and reports for improvements on two churches, $250. Benevolence, $148. Conversions, 4; accessions, 4. The condition here, financially, depends largely on the oyster industry, which, like in many other places, has been a failure; notwithstanding this, the gifts of the people for the benevolent cause has not decreased.

RIDGELY—The misfortune of having their pastor disabled by illness during the last two months of the Conference year will affect to a great extent this report, which equals that of the past year, and bids fair to surpass any of recent years. Raised on benevolence, $80. Conversions, 11; accessions, 8.

ROYAL OAK has enjoyed a spiritual harvest and reports 63 converts and 59 accessions. Paid on old debts, $471. Benevolent collections, $188. To the African Diamond Jubilee, $7. Carnegie Fund, $15. The work is advancing on all lines. The pastor and people are happy and they expect his return.

ST. MICHAELS happily reports 43 conversions and 43 accessions as the result of revival fire upon her altar. Benevolent collections are full with $25 for Carnegie Fund. Total $213. The purchase of a corner lot and preparation to build a new parsonage marks the added activity of this well organized body. The pastor is ending his fourth year amid greater enthusiasm than when he first began; so brethren quiet your hopes this way.

STEVENSVILLE—This work has encountered another dull oyster season, but would acknowledge no failure; now, the long needed and much talked of church building to be known as Union Memorial is a reality, erected at a cost of $1,800, on which has been raised and paid the sum of $575. The pastor has shown himself equal to a great task and deserves credit, he also belongs to the list of church builders. This beautiful edifice will be dedicated in the early part of May. Raised for benevolences, $84. Carnegie Fund, $5. African Diamond Jubilee, $2. Conversions, 13; accessions, 15. The pastors return is invited.

TRAPPE is fully alive, and the pastor is jubilant over the fact that he lives there, adding that he is quite willing to stay there. The parsonage has been renovated, making one of the most beautiful homes in the town, also a barn and carriage house erected, the entire improvement costing $1,200, with $450 paid on same. Benevolence, $97. Carnegie Fund, $5. Conversions, 68; accessions, 55. The pastor is happy in bringing things to pass, and that he with his people have used the foundation so well laid. Bro. Henry expects to return.

WILLISTON—This work has an encouraging outlook. Reports for benevolence, $50. Conversions, 14; accessions, 14. The pastor is painstaking and honest, who, if followed, will lead to success.

WITTMAN makes a splendid showing in a keen interest in every cause of the church. Benevolences, $120. To the Carnegie Fund, $20. This work is well organized and manned by a corps of faithful workers. Conversions, 3; accessions, 3. The pastor is what may be termed a quiet but sure success.

WOODLAND—This charge has for its pastor a faithful and energetic young man who enjoys the confidence of his people and of the community at large. The year has teemed with spiritual blessings upon all concerned. Conversions, 49, accessions, the same. Paid for improvement, $75. Raised for benevolences, $52. Carnegie Fund, 3. The organizations of the charge are carefully nurtured and are prosperous. The people desire the pastors return for another year.

Summary.

The reports show a total raised for benevolence, $3,223. For Carnegie Fund, $399. We regret much our failure to fill to overflowing every cause, but these gifts represent hard work and great sacrifice on the part of the faithful givers. It is victory snatched from a land of doubts and fears shorn of the beauty in spirit and practice ascribed to "the land of the midnight sun", though a land in which the shining sun is likened: to those most oppressed, but we are filled with brightest hopes on our way, for the Sun that lightens our path and inspires us in work is the "Sun of Righteousness" and promises a better day.

Respectfully submitted,

J. E. A. JOHNS.

PHILADELPHIA DISTRICT.

BISHOP AND BRETHREN:—

After a long period of severe illness the wife of Rev. A. F. Ennals, pastor of our church in Frankford, entered into rest. She was an ideal preacher's wife and her devotion to her husband and his work made her a model fit to copy by many younger women.

It has been a year of severe illness and suffering for many of our number, but with Pauline fervor, they declared, "None of these things move me," and as usual, while the years' record is not surprising, it is fully up to our average.

The Christmas blizzard will long be remembered. For weeks the Philadelphia District was buried beneath a blanket of snow, by the severest storm for many years, not only afflicting our city congregations, but for over a month causing a cessation of all meetings in our country appointments.

Yet, despite all these hindrances, we have come up to the Annual Conference with thankfulness to our Heavenly Father, and find so much joy in counting our blessings that we can afford to forget the light afflictions caused by the terrible Winter weather of January.

I regret that I cannot give you a more accurate report, but nearly one-third of our pastors were too careless or indifferent to make out the blank reports I sent them, and hence I cannot tell of the heroic giving of our people as I desire; people who are so loyal and liberal ought to receive some credit at the end of the year.

Epworth League work on the District shows a marked increase in members and interest; Sunday School, ditto, but much of the latter is due to the inspiration of M. C. Jennings, the talented Field Secretary of the Sunday School Board.

The vexing question of our Northern boundary, like Banquo's ghost, will not down. I have honestly tried for the past 14 years, in the midst of a constant storm of fault finding and misrepresentation, to have harmonious relations with the white Conferences to the North and East of us, but in vain.

After being informed by a District Superintendent of the New England Conference that he and his people bitterly opposed a Colored Superintendent presiding over the two churches placed in our territory by the General Conference, I consented not to oppose their transfer back, provided they would take care of these poor missions. After two years of trial, the century-old Revere St. Church of Boston sends its pastor to us for an appointment, but the church is utterly wiped out. New Haven is not much better.

The failure of the colored work in the white Conferences comes from the change in the personelle of the congregations; very few Northern people now attend them, but the new congregation is made up from Southern people who have been used to colored leadership alone. While the Southern colored brother appreciates the kindness of his Northern white friend, blood is thicker than water, and while he is made welcome, he cannot be made happy or useful in a mixed church.

St. Mark's in New York city, is a notable example of how to meet this question; the New York Conference helps and never hinders the membership of this great race church. The colored brother is accorded the fullest freedom and he repays the trust put in him, by doing the very best work of our people in Methodism. I commend the wisdom of the New York Conference to some Conferences nearer home.

The debt of the District is still one of the great hindrances to the spread of our work. If we could only use the thousands paid yearly for interest in developing our work, we could soon make the wilderness bloom and blossom like the rose.

Our ambition is to take this hard territory for Christ, and while it is a mammoth undertaking, we feel neither cast down nor forsaken.

ATLANTIC CITY has not had a very successful year, owing to the lack of harmony and support on the part of the people toward the pastor; it is to be regretted, for the success of the new building enterprise is not helped by such divisions.

BRIDGETON has made substantial progress toward preparing the way for the new church; money in bank, no debt, people encouraged and united.

BRONX has not done well for the year. Like most of our heavily assisted missions it fails to develop the principle of self support.

BROOKLYN has made some substantial improvement, but until it is emancipated from its present surroundings, there will be no permanent growth; pastor and people are making a gallant fight for better things.

BURLINGTON has met with misfortune in the death of one of her most faithful and progressive laymen, but moves on as usual, slow if not always sure.

CAMDEN is going steadily and pleasantly under its faithful pastor.

CAPE MAY has had new life and hope arisen, and the pastor nourishes wisely every indication of loyalty in order to build up a great future for this city by the sea.

ST. DANIEL'S, CHESTER, under the faithful and skillful leadership of the present pastor, this year, in some respects, surpasses the excellent report of the previous year, with every department of the church in good working order, and improving. This charge has a first class, well organized Sunday School, a growing Epworth League, a good size Junior League, an active and useful Ladies' Aid Society, and a promising W. H. Missionary Society. The benevolent or financial report to the Conference Treasurer, was $401, including $90 for the Carnegie Fund.

SILÓAM, CHESTER. Good year under difficulties. One of the greatest sessions of the Preachers' Meeting ever held.

FORDSVILLE has put on her beautiful garments and with her renovated church is fair to look upon. Good revival and the outlook for church and people promising.

GRENLOCH AND RHODES has had a blessed year of growth and progress. The new church just opened at Grenloch seems to those of us who remember the former days, to be a direct answer to the prayers of the fathers, and the entire circuit seems to respond grandly to the leadership of the pastor.

HUDSON has had a good year, salaries and collections in full.

MAGNOLIA—no report.

MERCHANTVILLE has had a quiet year of fair progress, and answers the roll call with her usual spirit of loyalty.

MONTCLAIR has had a wonderful year both spiritual and financial, and should be congratulated on her adjustment of the church debt.

MORRISVILLE has made steady progress since its creation into a station, and has become one of the sweetest, most promising and also performing points on the District.

MOUNT HOLLY—no report in time.

NEWARK brings one of the best reports in her history, both Sunday School and Epworth League work is far above the normal, and if some disturbing influences are withdrawn it will develop into one of the very strongest points on our work.

OCEAN CITY AND PLEASANTVILLE, carrying as heavy a burden in proportion to the membership, no charge has done better on the District in every respect; pastor and people are a unit. The way will soon be opened for the erection of a good church in Pleasantville, one of the rapidly growing suburbs of Atlantic City, while the work at Ocean City as usual is of the finest.

ORANGE. The change in the pastorate last year at this point, came near wrecking the entire future of this appointment, for the pastor who asked a transfer to another Conference after it was granted, did all that was in his power to sow the seeds of disloyalty among his former members by his frequent visits and his declarations of ill treatment by the appointing powers. Had it not been for the rare good sense of Dr. Palmer the work would have been injured beyond repair, and for the generosity of Mr. Ferry it would have been impossible. A good revival however cleared the atmosphere and the report of Orange is twice as good as it promised in the early part of the year.

OSSINNING has had a wonderful experience this year, for both white and colored Methodists have been captured by the wonderful religious fervor of Bro. Morris. The Ossinning fires are being answered by other beacon blazes from other points in the Hudson Valley.

CALVARY is one of the grandest experiments in our Philadelphia Methodism. After paying $5,500 on the old debt it continues to astonish those who know her work by the marvelous ease with which she bears her marvellous burdens, and disappoints the many prophecies of the impossible. A great year of blessings and gifts on the part of pastor and people.

FRANKFORD has had a very hard year. Between the blizzard, the car strike, and the death of sister Ennals, who was sick so long, as a consequence, it is no wonder that the extraordinary record of this church should not be equal to former years.

GERMANTOWN never fails and much credit is due to a working pastor and a loyal people. Everything in full.

HAVEN, where the Conference is meeting, is in an exceptionally flourishing condition and she has met in full all demands upon her for the large interest upon her debt, and to meet as far as possible her other demands.

JOHN WESLEY has made an excellent record of hard work and while her debt is a very heavy burden for her small membership of poor people, she is steadily forging to the front.

SOMERVILLE has had more to struggle under than most of our City Missions, but the report of the year's work shows the undiminished zeal of this remarkable people.

ST. PAUL'S. Bro. Smax in a very quiet way is building up the work at 18th and Dickinson. His Sunday School is much larger in numbers and interest than many of the great churches can boast, and the future promises well.

ZOAR, the "Old Reliable," never fails in the hardest of years, and after paying $1000 on the old debt, she brings up the benevolent collections in full.

SALEM has had one of the greatest years in her history, and at the same time one of the sweetest. The pastor's return is ardently desired.

SALEM CIRCUIT under the diligent care of Bro. Neilson responded nobly, and while the Penn's Neck Church is still in a weakly condition, yet any loss in that direction is more than made up by the steady growth of Haven Chapel.

SPRING LAKE. Her handsome new chapel is the ideal of a Summer Mission, and I look for great results this coming season.

WHITE PLAINS has had an unfortunate year, but has made some progress and some gain toward the desired goal. It is quite difficult to advance the benevolent work, among our Northern churches as our colored people have not been encouraged to make sacrifices for these great ends.

WOODBURY is the little point where Bro. Haman Ward has built a church which is a monument of his devotion. We must nurse this enterprise as a child, for while feeble it is truly a child of promise.

In concluding this imperfect review of the situation, I thank God for His unflinching care, and also for the strong support of those of my brethren, whose zeal enabled me to present a creditable report in spite of adverse conditions.

H. A. MONROE.

SALISBURY DISTRICT.

BISHOP AND BRETHREN:—

Being ourselves mere plodders, and serving a people of very limited means and opportunities, we have nothing remarkable to present. Faithful, not brilliant, is the motto under which we have labored; and we neither expect nor desire any other commendation than that of our Lord, Well done, thou hast been faithful over a few things.

It gives us great joy to report that there is evident growth in Christian character in the churches, and in consequence, a raising of the moral plain of our communities. This blessed change is due to the earnest, constant preaching of those doctrines which may be called the heart of the Gospel: namely, the unique work of Jesus Christ in saving sinners from their sins; imparting the Holy Spirit and the Word whereby they become partakers of the divine nature; and communion with God in Christ as the high privilege of the believer. On the grounds of these truths we exhort the people to be holy as He is holy; to put to death their members which are upon the earth, as fornication, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, anger, wrath, malice, shameful speaking, lying; to reckon themselves to have died indeed with Christ unto sin, and to have been raised up with Him, and made to sit together with Him in the heavenlies. Such is the preaching, and the quickening that always follows such preaching has been realized.

With the enlargement of knowledge and elevation of character there has come a more rational and spiritual mode of worship. The orgies falsely called prayer meetings, with their hideous sights and terrifying sounds, reminding one of the frenzy of a company of dervishes, are beginning to give place to meetings for real prayer and praise; meetings where loyal, longing hearts gather, reverent in spirit, decorious in manner, to see the King in His beauty, to pay their homage at His feet, and to present their petitions. Even that Saturnalia, the camp meeting, that high festival of carnality, that writhing mass of furious folly, that grand concourse of violence, drunkenness, lust, beastliness, profanation, sacrilege, blasphemy:— even the camp meeting is feeling the power of the truth, and is passing away like a horrid nightmare with the coming of the dawn.

Death has three times visited our parsonages. On the 21st of June, early in the evening, brother P. T. Scott was stricken with paralysis of the brain and died within an hour. His last days were his best in the highest sense. He had made a most favorable impression upon the people of Deals Island, both colored and white. His ministry was a benediction, and his death was mourned by both races. His lonely widow, whose simplicity and kindness were very helpful to brother Scott in his work, has our sympathy and our prayers. On Sunday, Oct. 5th, about 1 o'clock P. M., as he was administering the Holy Communion, brother C. E. Hemsley, of Nanticoke, was stricken with paralysis of the brain. He was taken from the altar to his bed, where he died the same afternoon about 4 o'clock. How devoted his life, how glorious his death! He went from commemoration to realization, from faith to vision, from hope to fruition. His wife, a true yokefellow indeed, is sadly bereaved. The people of Nanticoke showed great kindness to the widow and the children. Brother D. A. Ridout lost his daughter, Florence, on the 13th of November. She was talented, being specially gifted in music. She was sweet spirited, and was the favorite of the rest of the family.

The Rev. M. C. Jennings, the Conference Sunday School Field Missionary, was secured by D. H. Hargis to conduct an institute on Sunday School work at Princess Anne, Dec. 7th. The meeting was well attended by both pastors and laymen. Principal Trigg and several members of his Faculty were present and contributed much to the meeting's success. Brother Jennings, in his quiet manner and clear style, revealed a perfect mastery of his work. We were all enlightened, and inspired with new zeal from the laymen down to the District Superintendent. I regret that so little was raised on our District for the Sunday School work. We must do better next year.

The District Preachers' Meeting was addressed on Feb. 8 by Dr. Ward Platt of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, on the work of his board. The impression of the magnitude, difficulties, and withal the blessedness of the work, which he made on us cannot soon be effaced, and must bear fruit for the cause. While with us, he visited Princess Anne Academy, and made an inspiring speech to the students. He expressed himself as being highly pleased with the equipment, and the atmosphere of order and discipline which pervades the place. And in this estimate of the Academy, all must concur. And yet the attendance is only 130. Why? The average daily attendance is the best the school ever had, the average age of the students is lower than ever before. All of the departments are in full operation. There are eight different trades taught; and after the student's first year's experience, all of the work done is productive, a fact not generally known. Eighty-five per cent. of the students are church members; and the moral tone grows better every year. There is great need of a domestic science building for girls. The raising of the Carnegie Fund will secure such a building with proper equipment.

Interest in education is growing. Many of the pastors lead the people to lengthen the short school term by subscriptions among themselves. In Wicomico County, the colored children now go to school more than the white children do. And this fact is used by the Courier, the Democratic paper of the county, to stir the white people to educate their children. Education is the one matter of paramount importance to our race. He cannot be called a hobbyist who speaks of it in season and out of season. He cannot be called a fanatic who makes great sacrifices for it himself and calls on others to follow his steps. It is not extravagant to say that without knowledge sweet liberty is but the dream with which the slave seeks to lighten the weight of his fetters and mollify their galling. It is not worship of the intellect to say that without the trained mind, faith easily passes into superstition; doctrine becomes a mere rhapsody of words; experience becomes irrational emotional excitement; and worship becomes an orgy, enervating, degrading.

The indifference of the colored man to Christian education is astonishing and inexplicable. Each new day declares our need; and every experience in the business or pleasures of life, emphasizes our weakness. Living in the midst of a people who have attained to the highest degree of culture and power yet reached by mankind, and separated from them by a caste which daily grows more bitter, aggressive, and relentless, we have but one way of escape from a condition in comparison with which slavery itself was an idyllic dream. And that way, a sure and certain one, is Christian education. The Emancipation Proclamation, sealed with the blood of Lincoln and many other lovers of liberty, the hundred battle fields where liberty stands crowned victor over abhorred tyranny, the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments, the various Civil Rights Bills, could not settle the question of the place which the colored man is to hold in this country. For these things glorious and fundamental though they be, are negative conditions external to the subject himself. It is the Negro himself, and not the Supreme Court of the United States before whom the question of his standing as a man is to be determined. He himself will hand down the decision expressed in terms of debasing ignorance, grinding poverty, degrading superstition, dehumanizing vice; or in terms of luminous and adequate knowledge, provident thrift and economy leading to a dignified competence, a rational, all-conquering faith, a respect-compelling probity. From the decision of this court of last resort there can be no appeal. Our enemies of the white race know this, and mark their efforts to hold us down. Our friends know it (thank God that we have so many great and good friends among them!), and they are pouring out thousands to help us. Can we refuse their help, and continue to hope? To me the Carnegie offer is the voice of God calling us to hope and noble action. It is incredible that any man of our race who believes (he is to be pardoned, if he thinks the news too good to be true) that this great gift has been proffered us, should oppose it. But when we learn that men who have the position of leaders, and affect wisdom and devotion, are either indifferent or actively antagonistic to this great cause, amazed beyond all action or utterance, we pray God to open their eyes, to unstop their ears, to soften their heads, to melt their hearts, to cut loose their tongues, to wing their feet, to untie their pocket books; to move them, or remove them. It is preached and prayed on the Salisbury District, and would be sung, if we had a poet down there. We cannot boast of what we have accomplished, for we have really done too little. But I know that you will rejoice with us that we bring for this cause $968 this year, last year we reported $816, which makes a total of $1784. But there is a balance of $741 yet to be raised before we can shout. I believe the men of our District will raise every dollar of the $2525 apportioned us. Race love, not to say pride, philanthropy, gratitude, statesmanship, faith in God, as well as righteous resentment against race prejudice, irrational, brutal, fiendish: all these will form one grand irresistible motive which will sweep us on to victory.

Charges.

COTTAGE GROVE. The unbroken success of J. W. Waters for the past eight years on this charge, makes me jealous for some of the brethren who are members of the Conference, he being only a supply. Raised on old debts, $5; repairs, $162.55; new building, $1109.34, total, $1276.89. The apportionment for the Carnegie Fund was raised last year, but $9 more is added this year. Benevolences, $130; Africa, $7, total, $146. Conversions, 25; accessions, 5.

CRISFIELD. Raised on old debts, $800; on repairs, $100, total, $900. Raised on the Carnegie Fund, $46; Africa, $1; benevolences, $122, total, $160. In addition to this excellent work in his church, brother R. G. Waters, the pastor, has been supervising, and sometimes teaching in the school established by his efforts on the Jeans foundation. He has raised $400 for this work. Well done!

DAMES QUARTER. The people and brother J. L. Davis are mutually well pleased. The work has fully returned to its normal condition, and if employment was to be had, their report would be very large. I need only say that if the oyster himself has no legs, the oyster business has, and one night while the folks were asleep, the business got up and stole away, and they haven't found it yet, though they have sought it with tears. Raised on old debts, $180; repairs, $20, total, $200. Carnegie Fund, $31; benevolences, $31, total, $62. Conversions, 27; accessions, 30.

DEALS ISLAND. After brother Scott's death, mentioned above, I appointed J. R. Purnell to the work. He has been successful, though he had an experience that tested his grace. He stood the test, and the people of the Island are with him, and have done the best they could in their financial straits. Raised for new building, $13. Benevolences, $47; Africa, $3; Carnegie Fund, $30, total, $80.

EXMORE. L. D. Beecham has had charge for the past four years, and the people beg that he be returned to them, they are so pleased with his character and work. Raised on old debts, $150; repairs, $20, total, $170. Benevolences, $51; Africa, $1; Carnegie Fund, $11, total, $63. Conversions, 30; accessions, 12.

FAIRMOUNT, CENTENNIAL. Her travail is past. She is the mother of a second daughter that shows all those traits for which the mother has long been distinguished. Her normal condition has returned and she is working in the old way with her wonted vigor and success. She has 149 members, 95 Sunday School scholars, and 50 enrolled in the Epworth League. There were 25 conversions and 25 accessions. The pastor's salary is $650, just as of old; and he has a good new parsonage to live in near the church. Raised on old debts, $25; repairs, $150; new building, $395, total, $570. Benevolences, $71; Africa, $6; Carnegie Fund, $55, total, $126. The pastor, J. W. Bond, may be called in the language of Isaiah, the repairer of the breach, the restorer of paths to dwell in.

St. Andrew's Church. The wisdom of the establishment of this church is no longer questioned by anyone. The beautiful church dedicated last fall; the easy terms of the debt; the raising of $1200 on the debt this year; the 133 members, the 150 Sunday School scholars, and 50 Epworthians; the 19 conversions, and 27 accessions: all declare that no malevolent spirit inspired the founders of this enterprise; but that the spirit of progress, the Spirit of God moved those who severed ties so tender as those which bound all hearts to old Centennial. They pay the pastor $600, and their benevolent report is high considering the debt and the scarcity of work for the people. The Brother, R. G. Riley, may be called in the language of the prophet the nursing father of this young, but vivacious church. His skill as a nurse is of the first order, for it is of the home made brand. Benevolences, $92; Africa, $3; Carnegie Fund, $25, total, $120.

FRUITLAND. D. A. Ridout quietly takes care of that which is entrusted to him. Raised on old debts, $93; repairs, $23, total, $116. Benevolences, $101; Carnegie Fund, $17, total, $118.

GREENWOOD. Brother R. H. Boggs writes me that his people have suffered very greatly this winter. And of course, he has suffered with them. But they are heroic, and have sent a liberal offering for the general work of the church. Raised on old debts, $50; repairs, $6, total, $56. Benevolences, $47; Carnegie Fund, $10, total, $57.

HOPEWELL. Brother J. K. Adams says Hopewell is the best charge he ever had, and the people say he is the best pastor they ever had; and they are all happy, and working as they have not worked before during the past five years. A beautiful church is in progress of erection at Hopewell. Raised on old debts, $12; new building, $390, total, $402. Benevolences, $93; Africa, $3; Carnegie Fund, $45, total, $141.

JAMESTOWN. M. P. Sterling. Scarcity of work will account in some degree for the falling off in the report from this place. But while there is a falling off in the benevolences there has been an increase in the number of conversions over last year. Raised on old debts, $500; repairs, $45, total, $545. Benevolences, $62; Carnegie Fund, $5; total $67. Conversions 38; probationers, 38.

LAWSONIA has not yet become weary of the plain, searching teaching and preaching of brother J. A. Jeffers. On the contrary, they like both his teaching and himself more and more. He believes in organization. His Sunday School has the Home Department with 38, the Cradle Roll with 40, and the Temperance Society with 54, enrolled. There is also a Queen Esther Circle, which is doing great good in saving lost girls. Raised on old debts, $260; for repairs, $35, total, $295. Benevolences, $137; Africa, $7; Carnegie Fund, $24, total, $168. Conversions, 50; accessions, 52.

LEEMONT. J. E. A. D. Grigsby. It is customary for the brethren to speak of Virginia as of a land full of terrors dire. Brother Grigsby chose to go to Leemont, and he has not had cause to regret his choice. He found a fine country, a fine people, and a fine opportunity to work, and certainly that is what he wanted. Each of his churches has put in a new organ costing together, $250, more than half of which has been paid. Raised on old debts, $385; repairs, $145, total, $530. Benevolences, $81; Africa, $1; Carnegie Fund, $10, total, $92. Conversions, 40; accessions, 35.

MARDELA SPRINGS. J. W. Gillis. In the revision of the Districts at the last Conference, Mardela Springs was attached to the Salisbury District

It is a strong work, and brother Gillis has handled it most successfully. We welcome both pastor and people back to their home District. Raised on old debts, $225; repairs, $240, total, $465. Benevolences, $142; Africa, $4; Carnegie Fund, $35, total, $181. Conversions, 44; accessions, 35.

MARION STATION. L. E. Toulson. Their report is far beyond my expectation, and shows the loyalty of both pastor and people; for they have had a hard year. Raised on old debts, $125; new building, $440; repairs, $60, total, $625. Benevolences, $99; Africa, $1; Carnegie Fund, $25, total, $125. Conversions, 5; accessions, 3.

MARION CIRCUIT. L. J. Waters. As his way is, he has inspired the people to work; and they have surpassed all they have ever done before for the benevolences, the total reported being $66, in advance of last year. Paid on old debts, $162; repairs, $80, total, $242. Benevolences, $69; Africa, $5; Carnegie Fund, $21.50, total, $95.50. Conversions, 2; accessions, 17.

MT. VERNON. W. T. Purnell. The pastor is still attending the Academy at great sacrifice. He is making a fine record in school, and his church work is in fine condition. We preachers are apt to take the salary as the gauge of the spirit and growth of a church. Measured by this standard the vitality of Mt. Vernon is phenomenal, for they have raised the salary to $600. Raised on old debts, $260.10; repairs, $6.40, total, $266.50. Benevolences, $77; Africa, $3; Carnegie Fund, $14, total, $94. He leaves his church in a glow of revival fire; conversions, 45; accessions, 15.

NANTICOKE. These people have suffered most heavily from the failure of the oyster industry. What they give is certainly an expression of devotion to Christ and His Church. Brother A. R. Shockley was appointed to supply the work after the death of brother C. E. Hemsley. The church was well pleased to have brother Shockley. He is strong and wise, an able preacher and sure spiritual guide. Raised on old debts, $76. Benevolences, $26; Carnegie Fund, $40, total, $66.

OAK HALL. S. T. Parker. Though a very quiet man, he is one of the most successful pastors. He elevates his people by the preaching of the truth, and the fearless and impartial administration of discipline. Raised on old debts, $455. Benevolences, $75; Africa, $6; Carnegie Fund, $26, total, $107. Conversions, 56; accessions, 32.

ORIOLE is not its former self. Brother J. W. W. Cox is a man who is made of kindness. And they say he knows how rightly to divide the Word of Truth. But some churches need kindness and ————. There has been no different quality in the misfortune that has come upon them, from that in the same misfortune that has fallen upon our whole section. They take it differently. Their report could have been better, I believe. Raised on old debts, $47; repairs, $8, total, $55. Benevolences, $28; Carnegie Fund, $3, total, $31. Conversions, 8; accessions, 6.

PARSONBURG. The procrastination and camp meeting folly that caused the falling off in the benevolences of this place, will not deceive us again. The District Superintendent is sorry, the pastor is sorry, the people are sorry, and we all intend to keep sorry till we retrieve our reputation by bringing a great report next year. They are building a beautiful church at Parsonburg. Brother Rogers is justly very proud of this achievement. Raised on old debts, $17.26; repairs, $6.30; new building, $191.05, total, $212.61. Benevolences, $53; Carnegie Fund, $21, total, $74. Conversions, 22; accessions, 22.

POCOMOKE CITY. M. L. McKenny. Still the work grows under Bro. McKenny's skillful husbandry. Raised on old debts, $746. Benevolences, $116; Africa, $3; Carnegie Fund, $56, total, $175. Conversions, 41; accessions, 29.

PRINCESS ANNE. D. H. Hargis received his first appointment to this charge last Conference. The difficulties that met him were soon settled and the people have worked in perfect harmony with him and his wife, who is a helpmeet indeed. The report speaks loudly of earnest, well directed effort. Every disciplinary and all other benevolences are raised in full. Benevolences, $165; Africa, $8; Carnegie Fund, $62, total, $235. Raised on old debts, $235; repairs, $60, total, $295. Conversions, 5; accessions, 22.

PRINCESS ANNE CIRCUIT. A work, weak and small, and yet the pastor, C. T. Covington, brings a good report. For the benevolences, $46; Africa, $2; Carnegie Fund, $34, total, $82.

QUANTICO has kept the even tenor of her way under W. C. Bowland. Raised on old debts, $64; repairs, $20, total, $84. Benevolences, $24; Carnegie Fund, $15, total, $39.

SALISBURY. C. S. Sprigg ends his third year here. His sincerity and purity have been a great blessing to the community. Raised on old debts, $36; improvements, $209, total, $245. Benevolences, $217; Africa, $8; Carnegie Fund, $101, total, $328. Conversions, 9; accessions, 9.

SALISBURY CIRCUIT. J. L. Parker, pastor. This is a very hard work, and brother Parker is the man to do it, for he is patient, dependable, resourceful, and is blessed with a wife to the parsonage born, and at home in church work. Raised on old debts, $272; repairs, $36; new building, $10, total, $318. Benevolences, $28; Carnegie Fund, $20, total, $48. Conversions, 17; accessions, 4.

UNIONVILLE. J. H. Winters. He is greatly beloved by his people, and brings a good report. Raised on old debts, $47; repairs, $163; new building, $18, total, $228. Benevolences, $80; Carnegie Fund, $25, total, $105. Conversions, 34; accessions, 38.

WACHAPREAGUE. Brother G. B. Coleman has done a good work in repairing the parsonage, as well as in things spiritual. Raised for repairs, $175; for new building, $30, total, $205. Benevolences, $38; Africa, $1, total, $39. Conversions, 40; accessions, 28.

WATTSVILLE. J. S. Coulbourne completes his eighth year at Watts-ville in Virginia. His people want him to return, and he wants to return to complete the work of reform and elevation which he has been carrying on. Raised on old debts, $400; for repairs, $131, total, $531. Benevolences, $113; Carnegie Fund, $14, total, $127. Conversions, 62; accessions, 52.

WETIPQUIN. L. T. Robbins, pastor. Raised on old debts, $350; repairs, $50; new building, $1, total, $401. Benevolences, $40; Carnegie Fund, $12, total, $52. Conversions, 30; accessions, 25.

WHITE HAVEN. Being short of a man at the adjournment of the last Conference, I. H. Bivins, a local deacon of Marion Station, was placed in charge. Having had large experience at home, he and his wife entered very easily into the work here; and their success goes beyond our hope in a very difficult field. Raised on old debts, $14; repairs, $80; new building, $377.14, total, $471.14. The new church is nearly ready for dedication. This is an enterprise of the people themselves, led by brother J. F. Gattis, an exhorter, class leader and trustee. The benevolences are the largest for several years, the total being $42; Africa, $3; Carnegie Fund, $30, total, $75. Conversions, 11; accessions, 14.

Summary.

The revision of the District last year whereby we lost six churches will account to some extent for the falling off in our benevolences. But local conditions, and the inability of the pastors to handle the people will account for the greater part of our deficit. We have raised for the temporalities, $10,981.11; for the benevolences, $2544; for the Carnegie Fund, $968.00. The Epworth Leagues and Sunday Schools gave $60 for the special fund for Africa, and the churches report $78, making $136. The grand total of the benevolences, Carnegie Fund, and Africa Mission's Diamond Jubilee Fund is $3648. The Salisbury District will raise its apportionment for these two causes and raise the other benevolences too. We are determined.

P. O'CONNELL.

WILMINGTON DISTRICT.

BISHOP AND BRETHREN:—

The report of the Wilmington District is inadequate to our desire and effort to make it what it should be. The district is unnecessarily small, and one-third of it is very sterile. Most of the poor charges are pastored by men who are much more concerned about what they are to receive from than what they are to contribute to them. The pastor who serves a charge for a living, and does not by patient toil and unselfish devotion to his calling, contribute an equivalent, yea, more than he receives, makes the charge poorer. He has no right to reap where he has not sown. To strengthen the charge spiritually, numerically and financially is the pastor's special business, and failing to do this, he is a stone of stumbling, retarding the advance of the church.

The Disciplinary provisions for training the young people have been generally observed. The increased number of Sunday School Superintendent's reports, submitted to our Quarterly Conferences, the greater expenditures for Sunday School literature, and the formation of ten Teacher's Training Classes on the district, indicate more than ordinary interest in Sunday School work. Brother M. C. Jennings, our Field Secretary, organized a Sunday School of 38 scholars at Marshallton, Del., and if carefully nurtured it will, in the near future, become an important church.

The Junior Leagues of Ezion, Mt. Joy, Haven, Smyrna, Dover and Galena charges, are doing praiseworthy services in training the children, and bringing them into a relation of intelligent sympathy with our particular form of Christianity. In many homes the Bible is as a sealed book. Our people do not know the Scriptures. The majority of our young people never read the Bible. Our Class Leaders make no intelligent use of it in exhorting, reproving and comforting those whose experiences they hear in the Class Meetings. There is no hopeful future for a people, who do not earnestly seek to know, and do God's will as it is revealed in the Holy Scriptures. Ignorance of the Scriptures invites spiritual death, moral decline, mental imbecility and everything else that tends to degenerate a people. People who do not search the Scriptures, and who do not accept them as a rule of faith and practice, deprive themselves of the only certain source of strength, and are doomed to failure.

There is no duty more incumbent on our preachers than teaching our people the Scriptures. Much of the superstition connected with the religious life of our fathers, was awe-striking to the ungodly, but it has little or no influence on the ungodly of this generation, who respect only that which appeals to reason in matters of religion. This is a crucial period in the religious life of the Negro. We have it on good authority that, considering the increase in the Negro population, accessions to the church are less than they were ten years ago. The Negro, losing faith in the traditions which once seemed productive of piety, needs now more than ever, to know the Scriptures that he may be saved from unbelief. The world fails to fully realize how much it owes to the teachings of the New Testament and the spirit of Christianity. It is no exaggeration to assert that, whatever distress or suffering we may think of, the Christian religion has in all probability, anticipated us and provided for it. The spirit of Christianity is responsible for the existence of hospitals, colleges and universities.

Education is our paramount need. We do not fully realize the banefulness of ignorance. Opportunities for training our boys and girls are exceedingly meagre, and especially so in the country, but even those are not made the most of. There are too many parents who do not compel their children to attend school.

The Carnegie proposition merits much more support than we have given it. It is doubtful whether all of our pastors have done their best to interest their people in the $50,000 which Mr. Andrew Carnegie purposes to give to Morgan College, if an equal amount can be raised by its patrons. Failure or indifference in a matter having so much to do with the training of our young people is nothing less than criminal. Thrown in competition with those whose noble deeds glow on every page of history, and those who frequently deny us a square deal, we cannot make our way without a liberal training which enables us to do things as well, yea a little better than our competitors.

There are six young people of the Wilmington District attending our schools. Quite a number of our young people are being trained in the Delaware State College for Colored Students, at the head of which is Dr. W. C. Jason, a member of our Conference. Martin Luther discussing the criminality of unnecessary ignorance said: "Now if thou hast a child that is fit to receive instruction and art able to hold him to it, and dost not, but goest thy way and carest not what shall become of the secular government, its laws, its peace, etc., thou warrest against the secular government, as much as in thee lies, like the Turk, yea, like the Devil himself. For thou withholdest from the kingdom, principality, country, city, a redeemer, comfort, corner-stone, helper and savior. And on thy account the emperor loses both sword and crown, the country loses safe-guard and freedom, and thou art the man through whose fault, as much as in thee lies, no man shall hold his body, wife, child, house, home and goods in safety. Rather thou sacrificest all these without ruth in the shambles, and givest cause that men shall become mere beasts, and at last devour one another. This all thou wilt assuredly do, if thou withdraw thy child from so wholesome a condition."

Charges.

BARCLAY. More than five years ago this charge built a parsonage, and because of its many failures to meet its financial obligations, the creditors became impatient and threatened to sell. It appears that the strenuous efforts to save the parsonage minified the ministerial support and the benevolent collections. Raised on old debts $112. Conference collections $50. Carnegie Fund $2. Accessions 12. A. W. Lowber, pastor.

CATLIN has done remarkably well under the present administration. Three rooms have been added to the parsonage. Nearly all the framing was given by white friends. The pastor is a carpenter and did most of the work. This charge now has a very comfortable parsonage, and that at a very small cost to the members. Raised for improvements $101. Ministerial support and the benevolent collections full. Conference collections $91. Carnegie Fund $8. Accessions 11. W. T. Spellman, pastor.

CHESWOLD is far in the arrears. In a very limited sense do any of the people of this charge realize "that it is more blessed to give than to receive." The pastor and his family have really suffered for the things which life demands. There is, by reason of the pastor's consistent life among the people, and the Gospel which he has preached to them, a growing appreciation on the part of the people for nobler things. Conference collections $22. S. Hammond, pastor.

COLEMAN, formerly a charge of the Centreville District, was at the last session of the Conference added to the Wilmington District to increase the number of charges thereon. The change has been mutually helpful. The charge records a year of unparalleled success. Repaired, and added three rooms to the parsonage at a cost of $500, and paid $200 on the same. Advanced pastor's salary to $600. Conference collections $112. Carnegie Fund $25. Accessions 15. W. E. Waters, pastor.

CRUMPTON has not done well. The pastor for reasons which he is not wholly responsible, failed to enlist the sympathy and cooperation of his people. Ministerial support and the benevolent collections are painfully deficient. Conference collections $25. Accessions 1. C. O. Waters, pastor.

DELAWARE CITY. The church at St. George's, Del., was locked against the pastor when he returned at the close of last Conference session. He had, before going to Conference, secured the services of the well known "wild man" for special revival work, and the trouble which followed, plus the liberal collections which his congregation gave the evangelist was the price the pastor had to pay. The church remained closed only a short while, but the membership has shown but little interest in church work. Raised on old indebtedness $142. Conference collections $70. Carnegie Fund $20. Accessions 1. T. B. H. Coleman, pastor.

DOVER. There has been a decrease of three in the membership of this charge. The ministerial support as usual is according to estimate and the benevolent collections are full. Conference collections $123. Carnegie Fund $30. Accessions 3. E. H. Webb, pastor.

DOVER CIRCUIT, which advanced to First Class last year, will not be classified this year. The pastor's feebleness is responsible for the retrogression. Conference collections $26. Carnegie Fund $2. Accessions 3. S. W. Waters, pastor.

GALENA is still advancing. Its spiritual and financial condition is healthy. The new church at Davis' Hill has been painted. Paid on old debt $480. Conference collections $100. Carnegie Fund $45. Accessions 9. J. W. Jefferson, pastor.

MARYDEL has suffered greatly by reason of the pastor's protracted illness. His affliction has apparently weakened his mind. His memory is very defective. Raised on old debts $55. Conference collections $50. Carnegie Fund $5. W. H. Turner, pastor.

MIDDLETOWN is pressing on the upward way. Two rooms have been added to the parsonage. The exterior of the church has been painted. Raised for improvements $200, and on old indebtedness $100. Conference collections $75. Carnegie Fund $30. Accessions 11. J. U. King, pastor.

MILLINGTON has not receded from the high place it won last year. The pastor and people are like ants, they do their work in Summer. A lot has been purchased in Chesterville Grove, where the people live, and the church, which is two miles distant, will be moved and erected thereon. Raised for improvements $100. Conference collection $100. Carnegie Fund $6. Accessions 8. A. J. Wallace, pastor.

NEW CASTLE started well, but the ending is not what the beginning seemed to predict. While a much better work has been done this year than last, there is as usual a shortage in ministerial support and the benevolent collections. Raised on old debts $100. Conference collections $55. Carnegie Fund $15. Accessions 2. M. W. Clark, pastor.

NEWPORT, according to its strength, has done well. The members rented a parsonage in Wilmington and partially furnished the same. Conference collections $37. Accessions 2. H. T. Johnson, pastor.

ODESSA is waning. Zoar, the church in town, desires to become a station. That it would, with an energetic young pastor, do a more effective work is unquestionable. Conference collections $52. Carnegie Fund $12. Accessions 2. O. P. Dickerson, pastor.

PORT DEPOSIT began well this year, and doubtless would have ended the same but for the swelling of the Susquehanna, and the disastrous flood which followed. Raised on old debts $200. Conference collections $60. Carnegie Fund $10. Accessions 2. W. E. Hilton, pastor.

SASSAFRAS. Two churches, one in Sassafras, and the other in Poplar Neck, have done fairly well, but the church at Warwick has not given the pastor an audience for months. The work as a whole has not been a success. Conference collections $15. Carnegie Fund $5. Accessions 7. J. M. Whittington, pastor.

SMYRNA delights in working for the Master. It has witnessed many dark days, but it now rejoices for the light has come. The members are loyal and liberal. Raised for improvements $30. Conference collections $50. Carnegie Fund $31. Accessions 10. W. H. Johns, pastor.

STILL POND is another strong charge, which was added to this district the last Conference session, and judging from the work accomplished this year, it would seem that it has lost none of its former vigor. Ministerial support advanced. Conference collections $102. Carnegie Fund $40. Accessions 12. F. T. Johnson, pastor.

TOWNSEND. Influenced by the former pastor who seemed determined not to leave the charge, some of the officials notified the present pastor not to appear. He rightly ignored the notice and went to his appointment, but found no welcome there. Despite insults, treachery, sickness in his family, and want of support, for he received only $10 during the second quarter, this man of God was ever found at his post of duty. For months he sowed in tears, but never a word of complaint. He is a hero. About the middle of the year the people began to realize the worth of the man the Conference had assigned them, and then they began to work with a will, but could not atone for the time wasted in useless warfare. The Fourth Quarterly Conference unanimously voted for his return. Paid on old debts $109. Conference collections $56. Carnegie Fund $6. Accessions 6. P. W. Price, pastor.

WILMINGTON, EZION. This charge can always be depended upon for doing its full share. Frequently has it struggled hard to maintain its reputation, but this year's great success, seems to have been quite easily achieved, because harmony reigns supreme among the people, which condition is largely due to the wisdom of the pastor. So far as the benevolent collections are concerned this charge has been ready for Conference more than three months. The unusual interest which scores of young people manifest in Systematic Bible Study, is a most hopeful sign of the church's growth. The spiritual atmosphere of the charge is wholesome. Ministerial support is according to estimate and the benevolent collections are full. Conference collections $870. Carnegie Fund $160. African Diamond Jubilee $70. Accessions 18. N. W. Moore, pastor.

WILMINGTON, HAVEN. The financial affairs of this charge are in better condition than they were one year ago, but nothing less than the people's best will enable them to meet their many financial obligations. They are still worshipping in the basement. Circumstances are not altogether lovely, but the pastor has done his best to have them so. Conference collections $90. Carnegie Fund $15. Accessions 6. E. O. Parker, pastor.

WILMINGTON, MT. JOY. When the present pastor was assigned to this charge seven years ago, no preacher envied him, but since it has developed into one of the most desirable appointments on the district, some of the brethren are saying "it is time for him to move." The Third Quarterly Conference voted that the present pastor be returned to the charge for the eighth year. A new Estey organ at a cost of $450 has been purchased for the church, and a new piano costing $300 has been bought for the Sunday School. Conference collections $114. Carnegie Fund $26. African Diamond Jubilee $30. Accessions 1. W. J. L. Hughes, pastor.

SUMMARY. Raised for Foreign Missions $502. Home Missions and Church Extension $450. Freedman's Aid $231. Carnegie Fund $522. African Diamond Jubilee $100. Accessions 128. We worked and prayed for better results, by no means are we satisfied with these. We are not discouraged, we are going to try again, and God helping us we shall do better the next time. A most cordial relation exists between me and my fellow-laborers. Their many expressions of good will and confidence have contributed much to my happiness and strengthened me to do the work assigned me.

Respectfully,

W. F. COTTON.

Report No. 3.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

The past year has not been an eventful one. Conditions as far as the welfare of the land is concerned remain practically the same. As the country grows in wealth, population and industry, its great problems whether they be political, economic or social, become more complex. The settlement of one question gives rise to another. Unlimited opportunities for development give infinite scope to the display of constructive statesmanship and make possible the continuity of the historic stream.

The proper adjustment of the relations between labor and capital is one of the most perplexing questions of the hour. The manifest tendency of capital toward combination and the production of that skillful modern perfection of business organism known as the trust makes monopoly the dreaded monster of the business world. Statesmanship is endeavoring by legislation to regulate this end. Whether or not the effort is successful time only will tell. The genius for organization seems to have gone ahead of the genius for legislation.

The work of the Rev. Ernest Lyon, D. D., United States Minister and Consul General to the Republic of Liberia and his recent visit to this country has attracted widespread interest in the development of that country and gives emphasis, scope and renown to the importance of that great field for missionary effort. The sending of a Commission to Liberia and the gathering of information in regard to the industrial, financial and educational status of that Republic has placed it in the mind and upon the hearts of the American people as never before.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

We truly believe that the Christian Sabbath is of God, this seems evident for the following reasons:

It was the day of our blessed Lord, when He gave us the glorious Resurrection.

It was sanctioned by the Apostolic usage and it was adopted by the Christian Church.

We are against the tendency which seeks to destroy the Sanctity of our Christian Sabbath.

We strongly urge our people to regard the Christian Sabbath and forget not the assembling of themselves together for Christian worship, and thus be better prepared for Christian service.

WELCOME TO EX-VICE PRESIDENT FAIRBANKS.

We welcome home to our glorious country Ex-Vice President Charles Warren Fairbanks of Indiana, and heartily commend his loyalty to the great church of which he is an honored and esteemed member.

His exhibition of moral courage in the recent incident of the Vatican in Rome, Italy, was characteristic of that great principle of Americanism which means the separation of Church and State and the privilege of each man to worship according to the dictates of his own conscience.

This demonstration of enlightened American statesmanship has given scope, emphasis and renown to the importance of our mission work in the famous city upon the banks of the Tiber.

We express our delight in numbering among our constituents such an embodiment of Americanism and Methodism as the Hon. Charles Warren Fairbanks.
